PART I - SCOPE OF COVER

CLASS 1 – DEFENCE

CLAUSE 1

Preliminary

- (A) The extent to which (if at all) an Assured may be supported by the Underwriters in respect of any Claim shall be decided by the Underwriters at any stage of the Claim, dispute, matter or proceedings. Each Claim or incident will be considered on its own merits and previous support for a particular type of Claim does not guarantee, or in any way bind the Underwriters from approving, or covering a similar Claim in the future.
- (B) (i) This Insurance only provides cover for legal cost and expense incurred by the Assured:
- (a) in connection with an Insured Ship; and
 - (b) during the Policy Period; and
 - (c) in the Assured's capacity as Charterer, and/or disponent owner of, and/or carrier of goods in an Insured Ship.
- (ii) For the purposes of determining when a particular Claim is covered under clause 1(B)(i):
- (a) a Claim or dispute arising out of contract (other than a Claim or dispute specified in clause 1(B)(ii)(b) below), in tort or under statute shall be deemed to arise on the date when the cause of action accrued or is alleged to have accrued;
 - (b) a Claim or dispute as to salvage or towage services shall be deemed to arise on the date when the relevant services were begun or are alleged to have begun.
- (C) The risks as set out in clause 3 are limited by the restrictions set out in the remainder of these Terms and Conditions, including but not limited to, Part II and the relevant Certificate of Insurance.

CLAUSE 2

Maximum Limit

- (A) The maximum liability of the Underwriters under Class 1 in respect of each accident or occurrence and whether consisting of one or more Claims relating to an Insured Ship shall be limited to such sum as the Underwriters may from time to time determine (the "Maximum Sum") which shall never exceed USD 2,000,000 (two million United States Dollars) or such other limit as may be agreed in writing by Underwriters and contained in the Certificate of Insurance.
- (B) Where during any Policy Period there are multiple Claims arising out of or in connection with a single accident or occurrence and the aggregate of such Claims (excluding Deductibles) exceeds the Maximum Sum, the liability of the Underwriters for each individual Claim shall be such proportion of the Maximum Sum as that Claim bears to the aggregate of all such Claims.

CLAUSE 3

Risks covered

Legal cost and expense, including any legal cost and expense which the Assured may become liable to pay to any other party in proceedings, solely for Claims as set out in sections 1 to 17 of this clause:

SECTION 1

Claims for hire, freight, deadfreight and passage money arising under any Charterparty, bill of lading, waybill or other contract;

SECTION 2

Claims for general and particular average contributions or charges;

SECTION 3

Claims for demurrage or despatch;

SECTION 4

Claims in respect of the detention of an Insured Ship (including, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, detention for any cause by any department of state, or local, or public authority or body, or any person or persons in authority);

SECTION 5

Claims in respect of the loss of or damage to an Insured Ship;

SECTION 6

Claims for the breach of any Charterparty, bill of lading, waybill or contract of affreightment, or for the breach of any legal duty arising in connection with the carriage of goods;

SECTION 7

Claims in respect of improper loading, lightering, stowage, trimming, or discharge of cargo;

SECTION 8

Claims in respect of the supply of inferior, unsatisfactory or unsuitable fuel, outfit or equipment, or other necessaries;

SECTION 9

Claims connected with overcharges in accounts;

SECTION 10

Claims in respect of salvage and towage services rendered by, or to, an Insured Ship;

SECTION 11

Claims by or against passengers intended to be, or being, or having been carried, on an Insured Ship, or their personal representatives or dependants;

SECTION 12

Claims by or against masters, officers, crew, stowaways and other persons on or about an Insured Ship;

SECTION 13

Claims arising in connection with:

- (a) any sale, or proposed sale, of the Insured Ship by the registered owner which interferes, or threatens to interfere, with the rights or obligations of the Assured; or
- (b) the purchase, or proposed purchase, of the Insured Ship by the Assured pursuant to the exercise of rights acquired under the Charterparty in respect of the Insured Ship; or
- (c) any action, or proposed action, by a mortgagee of the Insured Ship which interferes, or threatens to interfere, with the rights or obligations of the Assured;

SECTION 14

Claims by or against Revenue or Customs Authorities in connection with an Insured Ship;

SECTION 15

Representation of an Assured at official investigations, coroners' inquests, or other enquiries whatsoever in relation to an Insured Ship;

SECTION 16

The cost of obtaining information and legal advice on matters of general concern to Charterers.

IT IS A CONDITION PRECEDENT FOR THE PROVISION OF COVER UNDER THIS SECTION 16 THAT:

- (a) the Assured has received the prior approval of the Underwriters before seeking such information or advice; and
- (b) the amount recoverable by an Assured under this section shall not exceed such sum as the Underwriters have expressly agreed with the Assured when seeking and obtaining their prior approval as required by sub section (a) above;

SECTION 17

All Claims, disputes, matters, legal, arbitration or other proceedings (other than those specified in sections 1 – 16 of this clause) as the Underwriters shall decide fall within the scope of the Insurance, other than any risks which are specifically excluded from the Insurance.

CLAUSE 4

Claims handling

- (A) The Insurance has been provided and Premium calculated on the basis that Underwriters shall be entitled to control the conduct of any Claim, dispute, matter or proceedings in the name of the Assured to such stage or extent, and in such manner and on such terms and conditions as the Underwriters decide, including (without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing) the right to defend, litigate, arbitrate, mediate, settle, abandon or in any other way dispose of a Claim.
- (B) The right of Underwriters as set out in sub clause (A) above shall apply notwithstanding any previous decision by the Underwriters to support the Claim, dispute, matter or proceeding.
- (C) Underwriters may at any time appoint and employ on behalf of the Assured upon such terms as they think fit, lawyers or other persons both within and outside the United Kingdom with a view to investigating, advising upon, or otherwise dealing with any Claim, dispute, matter or proceedings and discontinue such employment at any time.
 - (i) Such lawyers and other persons must (without prejudice to their right to retire from the matter on any other grounds) retire from the matter if they consider that a conflict of interest has arisen or may arise between the Assured and the Underwriters.
 - (ii) Such lawyers and other persons shall at all times give advice and report to the Underwriters in connection with the matter without prior reference to the Assured and produce to the Underwriters without prior reference to the Assured any Documents or information in their possession or power relating to any Claim, dispute, matter or proceeding, in the same manner as if they had been appointed to act and had at all times been acting on behalf of the Underwriters and whether or not any such Documents or information would otherwise be the subject of legal or any other form of privilege.
 - (iii) The Underwriters may at any time rely upon such advice, reports, documentation or information in order to discontinue, or refuse, further support and any failure to rely on such advice, reports, documentation or information within a reasonable time after receipt of the same, or at all, shall in no circumstances prejudice, or affect, Underwriters rights, or be treated as any waiver of those rights.

- (D) Without prejudice to the generality of paragraphs (A) to (C) of this clause, the Underwriters shall be entitled to consider:
- (i) whether an Assured has shown that he has reasonable grounds for taking steps to assert, or dispute, any Claim, dispute, matter or proceedings, or for taking, defending or being a party to or being represented at any proceedings;
 - (ii) whether in the particular circumstances of the Claim, dispute, matter or proceedings it appears appropriate to the Underwriters that the Assured should be supported;
 - (iii) whether to reimburse any Claim to an Assured in whole or in part.
- (E) Where Underwriters exercise their rights under sub-paragraphs (A) to (D) above and decide that it is not appropriate for an Assured to be supported in connection with any Claim, dispute, matter or proceedings having regard to the probable legal cost and expense likely to be incurred in such proceedings as compared with the amount in dispute, then the Underwriters may (in abandoning or otherwise dealing with the Claim) pay to the Assured the whole or any part of the Assured's Claim, as the Underwriters may think fit.
- (F) The Underwriters shall be entitled to withhold payment of any Claim until such time as all outstanding sums due from the Assured are fully paid and to exercise their right of set-off in accordance with clause 21(H) against Claims payments in respect of sums due.

CLAUSE 5

Right of the Underwriters to recover costs from an Assured

Underwriters shall be entitled to recover from an Assured as a first charge against any award or judgment in respect of costs, an amount equal to any amounts paid by them under this Insurance relating to the same Claim, matter, dispute or proceedings. In circumstances where the Assured resolves a Claim, matter, dispute or proceedings by way of a commercial settlement, then where the settlement payment specifically refers to a cost element, Underwriters' rights shall be as stated above. Where the settlement payment does not specifically refer to a cost element, Underwriters will be entitled to recover from the settlement amount the same percentage as the settlement amount bears to the full Claim amount in respect of any amounts paid by them under this Insurance relating to the same Claim, matter, dispute or proceedings.

CLAUSE 6

Obligations of the Assured in respect of Claims

- (A) An Assured must promptly notify the Underwriters of every casualty, Claim, dispute, matter or event which is liable to give rise to a Claim by him under the Insurance.
- (B) (i) An Assured must at all times promptly notify the Underwriters of any Documents, reports, evidence or other information relevant to any Claim, dispute, matter or event which has led or which is liable to lead to a Claim by the Assured under the Insurance, and which are in the possession or power of the Assured or his agents or otherwise within his knowledge.
- (ii) When so requested by the Underwriters, an Assured shall promptly produce, or cause his agents promptly to produce to the Underwriters and/or allow the Underwriters or their agents (including any lawyer appointed by the Underwriters) to inspect, copy, or photograph all Documents of whatsoever nature which are or may be relevant to the Assured's Claim or intended Claim. The Underwriters shall further have the right to direct the Assured to preserve evidence (whether documentary or physical, including but not limited to samples, machinery or parts of equipment) until Underwriters determine that such preservation is no longer required. Any associated cost or expense shall be for the account of the Assured save where Underwriters agree to cover the same.
- (iii) An Assured shall permit the Underwriters or its agents (including any lawyer appointed by the Underwriters) to interview any servant or agent or other person who may have been working for the Assured at the material time or at any time thereafter or whom the Underwriters may consider likely to have any direct or indirect knowledge of the matter giving rise to the Assured's Claim under the Insurance, or who may have been under a duty at any time to report to the Assured in connection with the said matter.

- (C) An Assured shall not settle or admit liability for any Claim, dispute, matter or proceedings in connection with which the Underwriters may be liable under this Insurance without first obtaining the written consent of the Underwriters.
- (D) If an Assured wilfully or negligently withholds any relevant information, Document or evidence or knowingly conceals any relevant information, Document or evidence, or makes any false statement with a view to obtaining the support of the Underwriters in any matter, or if an Assured causes or knowingly permits any other person to act in such a way, the Assured shall become exposed to the sanction set out in (G) below.
- (E) The Assured shall on request by the Underwriters provide copies of any Documents in their control relating to compliance of the Insured Ship with such directions, provisions and/or requirements of SOLAS 1974 (and any amendments thereto) and the ISM Code.
- (F) The Assured must be in a position to demonstrate that they carried out adequate checks at the time of entering into the relevant contract to show the good commercial standing and reputation of the intended contractual counter party with no adverse credit history or non-compliance with contractual obligations, including the honouring of any arbitration award or judgment and that they had appropriate insurance cover for the intended venture.
- (G) Where an Assured is in breach of any of the obligations set out in sub-sections (A) – (F) of this clause THERE IS NO INSURANCE and the Assured shall be liable to repay any amounts paid by the Underwriters in respect of Claims made in relation to the same Claim, dispute, matter or proceedings. The Assured shall not be entitled to any return of Premium.

- (B) Where during any Policy Period more than one Claim is made in respect of any one accident or occurrence, and the aggregate of such Claims (exceeding Deductibles) exceeds the Maximum Sum, the liability of the Underwriters for each individual Claim shall be such proportion of the Maximum Sum as that Claim bears to the aggregate of all such Claims.

- (iv) under the terms of any sub-Charterparty of an Insured Ship between the Assured (as disponent owner) and a sub-Charterer pursuant to which the Assured is obliged to indemnify, or pay damages or compensation to the sub-Charterer in respect of liabilities which that sub-Charterer has incurred (and discharged) under or pursuant to a bill of lading and/or contract of carriage relating to the carriage of goods on an Insured Ship.

- (B) Risks

- (i) Loss, shortage, damage or delay

(b) Cover as provided under sub-section (ii)(a) of this clause shall include cover against storage risks which are incidental to a transit, being liabilities incurred by the Assured pursuant to the contract of carriage in respect of events which occur during periods between discharging from and loading onto any means of transport, for a period of up to seven Days between any two transits where such storage is within the port area or otherwise in a secure storage area.

(iii) Storage

Only where Underwriters have agreed in writing to provide such cover Insurance against storage risks which:

- (A) the owner or disponent owner itself incurred such Fines and expenses under legal liability; and
- (B) those Fines and expenses are not recoverable by the Assured from any third party.

IT IS A CONDITION PRECEDENT FOR THE PROVISION OF COVER UNDER THIS SECTION 14 THAT:

the relevant Charterparty contains either the Stowaways Clause for Time Charters as contained in the Baltic and International Maritime Council Special Circular No. 5, dated 21 July 1993 or Stowaways Clause for Time Charter Parties 2009 as contained in the Baltic and International Maritime Council Special Circular No. 1, dated January 2010, or some other provision which limits any liability to the same extent or lesser.

Cost and expense approved in advance by Underwriters incurred by an Assured in defending himself, or in protecting his interests, before a formal enquiry into the loss of, or into a casualty involving, an Insured Ship but only to the extent that such enquiry relates to a risk for which Insurance is provided in this Class.

SECTION 16
Legal cost and expense

Legal cost and expense (including surveyors' costs and expenses and other costs and expenses associated with any investigation) approved in advance by Underwriters relating to any liability or alleged liability or expenditure against which the Assured has Insurance or, by reason of the Maximum Sum or a Deductible, has Insurance in part.

SECTION 17
Expenses incidental to the chartering of Ships (Omnibus Clause)

Liability, cost and expense incidental to the business of chartering Ships which in the opinion of the Underwriters fall within the scope of the Insurance.

SECTION 18
Expenses incurred by direction of the Underwriters

Liability, cost and expense which an Assured may be required to incur by special direction of the Underwriters in cases in which the Underwriters decide that it is in the interest of the Underwriters that the direction be given.

CLAUSE 10

Special cover

The Underwriters may issue a Certificate of Insurance on terms which cover an Assured against any special or additional risks not set out in clause 9. The nature and extent of the risks and the terms of the cover, including but not limited to any Maximum Sum, additional Premium and/or Deductible shall be as agreed in writing between the Underwriters and the Assured.

CLAUSE 11

Claims handling

- (A) The Insurance has been provided and the Premium calculated on the basis that Underwriters shall be entitled to control the conduct of any Claim, or legal, or other proceedings in the name of the Assured relating to any liability, loss or damage in respect of which the Assured has Insurance in whole or in part to such stage or extent and in such manner and on such terms and conditions as the Underwriters decide, including (without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing) the right to defend, litigate, arbitrate, mediate, settle, abandon or in any other way dispose of a Claim.
- (B) If the Assured does not comply with the Underwriters' right to control or direct the conduct of any Claim or legal or other proceedings as set out in paragraph (A) of this clause or does not settle, compromise or dispose of a Claim or of proceedings after being required to do so by the Underwriters in accordance with paragraph (A) of this clause, any eventual recovery by the Assured from the Underwriters under the Insurance shall be limited to the amount he would have recovered if he had acted as required by the Underwriters.
- (C) Underwriters may at any and all times appoint and employ on behalf of the Assured, upon such terms as the Underwriters may think fit, lawyers, surveyors and other persons both within and outside the United Kingdom with a view to investigating or advising upon or otherwise dealing with any Claim or legal or other proceedings and discontinue such employment at any time.
 - (i) Such lawyers and other persons must (without prejudice to their right to retire from the matter on any other grounds) retire from the matter if they consider that a conflict of interest has arisen or may arise between the Assured and the Underwriters.

- (ii) Such lawyers and other persons shall at all times give advice and report to the Underwriters in connection with the matter without prior reference to the Assured and produce to the Underwriters without prior reference to the Assured any Documents or information in their possession or power relating to any Claim, dispute, matter or proceedings, in the same manner as if they had been appointed to act and had at all times been acting on behalf of the Underwriters and whether or not any such Documents or information would otherwise be the subject of legal or any other form of privilege.
 - (iii) The Underwriters may at any time rely upon such advice, reports, documentation or information in order to discontinue, or refuse further support and any failure to rely on such advice, reports, documentation or information within a reasonable time after receipt of the same, or at all, shall in no circumstances prejudice or affect Underwriters' rights or be treated as any waiver of those rights.
- (D) The Underwriters shall be entitled to withhold payment of any Claim until such time as all outstanding sums due from the Assured are fully paid and to exercise their right of set-off in accordance with clause 21(H) against Claims payments in respect of sums due.
- (E) In no circumstances whatsoever will the Underwriters provide cash deposits or be obliged to provide bail or other security. Neither does the Insurance cover any cost or expense incurred by the Assured in arranging for, placing, or maintaining bail or other security. The Underwriters may, however, should they otherwise agree with the Assured, provide bail or other security in respect of a Claim, in such form and on such conditions (including but not limited to the provision of counter security by the Assured) as the Underwriters may determine. The provision of any such bail or security shall not constitute an admission of liability by the Underwriters in respect of any Claim which the Assured may seek to make under the Insurance and shall always be subject to the rights of reimbursement and recourse set out under clause 21(I).

CLAUSE 12

Obligations of the Assured in respect of Claims

- (A) An Assured must promptly notify the Underwriters of every casualty, event or Claim upon him which is liable to give rise to a Claim by him under the Insurance (including Claims by him under any special cover agreed with the Underwriters under clause 10).
- (B) An Assured must promptly notify the Underwriters of every event or matter which is liable to cause the Assured to incur liabilities, costs or expenses for which he may have Insurance (including any liabilities, costs or expenses which are the subject of any special cover agreed with the Underwriters under clause 10).
- (C) An Assured must promptly notify the Underwriters of every survey or opportunity for survey in connection with a matter referred to under sub-paragraphs (A) or (B). The Underwriters shall be entitled to send one or more representatives to attend such a survey.
- (D) (i) An Assured must at all times promptly notify the Underwriters of the existence of any Documents, reports or other information relevant to a casualty, event or other matter referred to under sub-paragraphs (A) or (B) which are in the possession, custody or power of the Assured or his agents or otherwise exist to the knowledge of the Assured.
- (ii) When so requested by the Underwriters, an Assured shall promptly produce to the Underwriters and/or allow the Underwriters or their agents to inspect, copy or photograph all Documents of whatsoever nature which are or may be relevant to the Assured's Claim or intended Claim (including, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, vouchers, survey reports and general average adjustments). The Underwriters shall further have the right to direct the Assured to preserve evidence (whether documentary or physical, including but not limited to samples, machinery or parts of equipment) until Underwriters determine that such preservation is no longer required. Any associated cost or expense shall be for the account of the Assured save where Underwriters agree to cover the same.
- (iii) The Underwriters may at any time require to be satisfied as to the spaces, plant, and apparatus used and the instructions given for the carriage of cargo in insulated or refrigerated chambers or containers and the terms of the contract of carriage under which such cargo is to be carried. Immediately upon Underwriters request the Assured shall supply all relevant information to the Underwriters. If the Underwriters are not satisfied with the information provided Underwriters shall be entitled to serve the Assured with a notice suspending the Insurance relating to the carriage of cargo in such spaces.

- (iv) An Assured shall permit the Underwriters or their agents (including any lawyer appointed by the Underwriters) to interview any servant or agent or other person who may have been working for the Assured at the material time or at any time thereafter or whom the Underwriters may consider likely to have any direct or indirect knowledge of the matter giving rise to the Assured's Claim under the Insurance, or who may have been under a duty at any time to report to the Assured in connection with the said matter.
- (E) The Assured shall on request by the Underwriters provide copies of any Documents in their control relating to compliance of the Insured Ship with such directions, provisions and/or requirements of SOLAS 1974 (and any amendments thereto) and the ISM Code.
- (F) If an Assured wilfully or negligently withholds any relevant information, Document or evidence or knowingly conceals any relevant information, Document or evidence or makes any false statement with a view to obtaining the support of the Underwriters in any matter, or if an Assured causes or knowingly permits any other person to act in such a way, the Assured shall become exposed to the sanction set out in (J) below.
- (G) The Assured shall on request by the Underwriters provide copies of any Documents in their control relating to compliance of the Insured Ship with any directions, provisions or other requirements of this Insurance.
- (H) Upon the occurrence of any casualty, event or matter liable to give rise to a Claim by an Assured upon the Underwriters (including a Claim under any special cover granted under clause 10), it shall be the duty of the Assured and his agents to take and to continue to take all such steps as may be reasonable for the purpose of averting or minimising any expense or liability in respect of which he may have Insurance.
- (I) The Assured must be in a position to demonstrate that they carried out adequate checks at the time of entering into the relevant contract to show the good commercial standing and reputation of the intended contractual counter party with no adverse credit history or non-compliance with contractual obligations, including the honouring of any arbitration award or judgment and that they had appropriate insurance cover for the intended venture.
- (J) Where an Assured is in breach of any of the obligations set out in sub-paragraphs (A) – (I) of this clause THERE IS NO INSURANCE and the Assured shall be liable to repay any amounts paid by the Underwriters in respect of Claims made in relation to the same Claim, dispute, matter or proceedings. The Assured shall not be entitled to any return of Premium.

2. The exclusion in paragraph 1 of this Clause 33 will not apply to any liability of the Assured otherwise covered by this insurance where the liability directly arises from an identified instance of a transmission of a Declared Communicable Disease and where the Assured proves that identified instance of a transmission took place before the date of determination by the WHO of the Declared Communicable Disease.
3. However even if the requirements of paragraph 2 of this clause are met, no coverage will be provided under this insurance for any:

PART III - GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

CLAUSE 14

Duty of fair presentation

- (A) It is a condition precedent of this Insurance that the Assured and any party engaged by them have complied with their duty of fair presentation and have disclosed all the information which would influence the judgement of a prudent underwriter in determining whether to issue this Insurance on the terms set out in these Terms and Conditions and the relevant Certificate of Insurance. Should information later be disclosed or become known which shows that there was not a fair presentation, even if innocent, the Underwriter will not be bound by the terms of this Insurance the condition precedent having been breached, with the result that the Insurance will be void from inception. In such circumstances the Underwriter shall be entitled to retain any Premium paid against the costs of any Claims paid and to the extent the amount of Claims paid exceeds the value of such Premium, to be entitled to recover from the Assured the balance of any Claims paid.
- (B) It is the duty of the Assured and any party retained by them to disclose all information which they ought to know and which would have been revealed by a reasonable search of information and documentation which may influence the judgement of a prudent underwriter in determining whether to accept the Insured Ship and place the Insurance on the terms and for the amount of Premium set out in these Terms and Conditions and the relevant Certificate of Insurance.
- (C) The Assured's attention is specifically drawn to the queries raised during the application process concerning any special or unusual facts relating to the risks covered by the Insurance and any material factors, the purpose for which the Assured seeks the Insurance.

- (C) Without prejudice to the generality of clause 25 no act, omission, course of dealing, forbearance, delay or indulgence of any kind by or on behalf of the Underwriters, nor the granting of time, nor the acceptance by the Underwriters (whether expressed or implied) of liability for, or the recognition of, any Claim, and whether occurring before or after any date of termination shall derogate from the effect of clauses 22 to 24 inclusive or be treated as any waiver of any of the Underwriters' rights.

Forbearance

No act, omission, course of dealing, forbearance, delay or indulgence by the Underwriters in enforcing any of these Terms and Conditions, or any Insurance, nor any granting of time extensions by the Underwriters, shall prejudice or affect the rights and remedies of the Underwriters under these Terms and Conditions, or the Insurance, and no such matter shall be treated as any evidence of waiver of the Underwriters' rights, nor shall any waiver of a breach by an Assured of such Terms and Conditions operate as a waiver of any subsequent breach. Assignment

- (A) No Insurance provided by the Underwriters and no interest under any Insurance may be assigned without the written consent of the Underwriters who shall have the right to give, or refuse such consent, without stating any reason, or to give such consent upon any such terms or conditions as they may think fit. - (B) Whether or not the Underwriters consent to any assignment, they shall be entitled in settling any Claim presented by the assignee to deduct, or retain such amount(s) as they estimate may be sufficient to discharge any liabilities of the assignor to the Underwriters, whether existing at the time of the assignment, or having accrued, or being likely to accrue, at any other time.

Nothing in this clause shall affect the right of Underwriters to serve process in any manner permitted by law or limit the right of Underwriters to institute legal proceedings against the Assured in any other court of competent jurisdiction, nor shall the institution of legal proceedings in one or more jurisdictions preclude Underwriters from instituting legal proceedings in any other jurisdiction whether concurrently or not.

- (D) A person who is not a party to the Certificate of Insurance has no rights under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any terms of the Certificate of Insurance but this does not affect any right or remedy of a third party which exists or is available apart from that Act.

(G) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub clauses (A) – (F) above Underwriters may at any time prior to the service of claim submissions in arbitration have the right to have any dispute determined by reference to the High Court in London.
